Strategic Problems Solved by Full-Service Estate Settlement through Alix

Negative TOA During Estate Events

- › Client death is one of the highest-risk moments for asset attrition
- › Alix delivers visible execution and coordination during transition, reducing negative TOA risk and protecting firm- wide assets

 01

An Underserved Client Pain Point

- › Executors face 9–18 months of fragmented, uncoordinated responsibilities
- › No clear owner across financial, legal, and administrative tasks
- › Alix centralizes and manages the process, solving a serious client pain point

 02

Money in Motion

- › Estate settlement creates full financial transparency
- › Alix provides structured, permissioned workflows that enable responsible asset consolidation, NTF asset capture, and expansion into additional households and accounts

 03

Meet Alix

Alix is a technology-driven, white-glove estate settlement service that takes care of the personal, financial, and administrative responsibilities that follow a loss.

The Alix Mobile Experience

Alix provides structured visibility through estate settlement—helping Schwab remain connected, informed, and well-positioned when assets are in motion.

The Alix Customer Journey

Simple advisor implementation

Minimal systems integration

High client impact

Client Pathways

Pathway: Existing Charles Schwab Client Experiences a Family Death

Step 1: Client Contacts Schwab Advisor

- › Client notifies their Schwab advisor of the death
- › Advisor introduces Alix as a settlement resource

Step 2: Advisor-Led Introduction to Alix

- › Advisor initiates warm transfer (phone or email) OR shares Schwab-specific booking link
- › Initial consultation and assessment occurs with advisor present (with consent)

Step 3: Executor Onboarding & Estate Discovery

- › Alix Settlement Specialist clarifies executor role, estate documents, asset landscape, and immediate priorities
- › Consent obtained for advisor inclusion in updates

Step 4: Coordinated Settlement Execution

- › Alix manages probate, documentation, notifications, account transitions, and asset marshalling
- › Schwab advisor remains focused on investment strategy, planning, and relationship continuity
- › Defined advisor touchpoints at key financial events (estate account creation, asset consolidation, distribution planning)

The Result:

- › One coordinated settlement experience
- › Continued relationship with trusted Schwab advisor
- › Increase in NTF assets

Alix + Schwab Immediate Implementation Model

Advisor Enablement

01

- › Targeted training sessions with clear positioning guidance
- › Ready-to-use materials: email templates, call scripts, FAQ, client-facing one-pagers
- › Dedicated Alix implementation support

Future State

02

- › Deeper platform integration with Schwab's advisor workstation
- › Embedded referral pathways within internal estate servicing processes
- › Estate settlement services positioned as a core Schwab capability

Structured Settlement Engagement

03

With executor approval, advisors are included in the settlement process in the following ways.

- › Included in all email communications to the executor
- › Provided access to the Alix app to track progress and view updates
- › Contacted to schedule meetings at defined touchpoints

Simple Introduction Pathways

04

Advisors can engage with Alix using any of the following options:

- › Dedicated Charles Schwab priority phone number
- › Private CS email address
- › Direct booking link to meet with dedicated Charles Schwab trained Settlement Specialists

Advisors can reach out to Alix prior to family introduction or initiate a warm transfer via email or joint phone call

Why This Works for Schwab

Alix

- › High emotional impact, brand-aligned capability expansion
- › Increases perceived value without changing advice model
- › Reduces fee friction and negative TOA risk
- › Structured workflows to increase NTF households, accounts and assets
- › Easy to implement approach
- › Technology-forward model aligned with Schwab's long-term AI strategy
